A: You say you want the computer opponent, but then you also say you want two human players. If you want two human players, then you can just play the CD version. Since that has no online play, no other players, and no ads, it is exactly the same as the CD. If you also want online play, then you get none of that. If you want two computer opponents, then you will need to download a patch to download the online features. You should read the readme for the patch because it will explain how to do this. A: There is a version of cue club for the PC that you can play online, as well as a CD version that can be played on an external sound system like the usual cue club. That way you can play against your friends and/or on your own. The Frugal 13 Laborers I have a little frugal project to do. You see, for the past 30 years I have been called to serve in ministry in churches that have abundant means and hard things to contend with. I have run into many unbelievers in my time, and most of them have been the ones who sneer at the people of God from a poor, dead town or neighborhood who have been given a wonderful thing. I have seen many new believers who are more concerned with the extravagance of their living situations than they are with their new walk in Christ. I have heard many young people who say they would like to give their life to Christ if they could only get the things they need and have the money to pay for it. A word to those who are looking at the humble surroundings of the Christians in an area they know nothing about but assume all Christians have this perfect ministering lifestyle: They have just enough money to pay for the very basics of life, and that is just enough to keep them from being homeless or so near that they are forced to take the bus or the next best thing to a taxi on the way to church. A mobile ministry is a ministry that travels from place to place, and I have traveled with more than I can count. I have lived in the middle of nowhere, in the middle of the city, on a government subsidy and be darned grateful to have a roof over my head. When my family came to the U.S.A. from Europe we slept in a park. We stayed in the one we were
